A late Victorian glass vase, attributed to Platts Glassworks

A late Victorian glass vase, attributed to Platts Glassworks and possibly designed by J.F. Bolton-Bowater the vase with cased yellow over white glass, enamel handpainted flowers, ribbon and a butterfly, polished base, 17cm high

Condition Report

The gilding around the upper rim is almost completely rubbed away, some light flaking/rubbing to the exterior painted enamel - though not disfiguring.
