Eight pieces of Caughley porcelain

Eight pieces of Caughley porcelain transfer-printed in underglaze blue with the Pagoda pattern circa 1780-90, comprising a tea canister with an associated cover, Sx mark, a teapot stand, a bread and butter plate, a spoon tray, a trio of a coffee cup, saucer and tea bowl and a slop bowl, tallest 13cm high (8)

Condition Report

General gilding rubbing throughout.

The waste bowl has a firing crack to the interior and the gilding is very worn. The caddy has a restored chip to the cover and a secondary under-restored chip to the underside of the cover.
